

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

OFFICE OF THE
NEW JERSEY STATE LIBRARIAN,
TRENTON, N. J., January, 1899. }

*To His Excellency Foster M. Voorhees, Governor and ex-officio
President of the Board of Commissioners of the State Library of New Jersey :*

SIR—Permit me to submit the following report of the condition of the State Library for the fiscal year ending October 31st, 1898.

The number of books, pamphlets, magazines and newspapers on file in the State Library at the time of my last annual report was 48,986.

During the past year the following additions have been made by exchanges with the General Government, the States and Territories, Honolulu and Canada, donations and purchase, as more particularly specified in the Appendix :

By exchange from other States, Territories, Honolulu and Canada.....	472
By exchange from the United States.....	602
By individual donations, books, pamphlets, &c.....	209
By individual donations, newspapers.....	93
By subscription, papers and magazines.....	41
By purchase, miscellaneous books	290
By purchase, law books.....	317
From the State, bound volumes.....	220
Total additions.....	2,284

Making the whole number of books, &c., now in the Library 51,270, which is an increase during the last fifteen years of 22,409, without exceeding the annual appropriation of $3,000 for "the purchase and care of books," and which is within 6,000 volumes of the whole number accumulated during the previous sixty-two years of the existence of the Library. It will be understood, also, that this is a solid increase, as it consists of the best of law books and standard literature and is entirely devoid of works of fiction or brash speculative theories. Several State Libraries boast of more volumes, but none can exceed ours in quality and completeness, either of law or literature, the excess generally arising from duplication. In fact, but for the avoidance of unnecessary duplicates, and ridding the Library of undesirable works, the Library would contain 4,954 more volumes than at present, as in 1879 the Commissioners, under the power conferred upon them by the Legislature, transferred 3,000 volumes of light literature to the State Prison and the Soldiers' Home, and within two years 1,954 duplicates have been returned to the United States and the State governments.

An important fact, bearing upon the unrivaled excellence of the Law Department, is that in 1849 the old "Lawyers' Library" was presented to the State, upon condition that the members of the bar should have free access to it, and that it should be maintained by the State by proper continuous accessions. "The Lawyers' Library" comprised English, Scotch and Irish Reports, Digests and Statutes, that are now of inestimable value.

The names of the donors, as gathered from a weather-worn paper, pasted upon a board, and deposited in the Library, are the following: Stacy G. Potts, Treasurer and Librarian; Oliver S. Halsted (Chancellor), Henry W. Green (Chief Justice), James S. Nevius (Justice), Ira C. Whitehead (Justice), Joseph F. Randolph (Justice), Thos. P. Carpenter (Justice), Abraham Browning (Attorney-General), Garret D. Wall, Peter D. Vroom, William Pennington, Lucius Q. C. Elmer, William N. Jeffers, William Halsted, Asa Whitehead, James S. Green, Archer Gifford, Jacob W. Miller, Richard S. Field, John Chetwood, E. B. D. Ogden, A. O. Zabriskie, Daniel F. Ryall, Peter I. Clark, Alexander Wurts, John M. Sherrerd, A. C. M. Pennington, Wm. H. Leupp, William L. Dayton, Alphonso L. Eakin, A. S. Hubbell, Elias Vanarsdale, Jr., A. S. Pennington, Jona. D. Miller, Stacy G. Potts, James Ewing, James J. Scofield, Wm. M. Scudder, Frs. L. Mac-cullough, Richard P. Thompson, Benjamin Williamson, Ed. W. Whelpley, Thomas B. Kennedy, John Whitehead, Henry McMiller, James N. Reading, Joseph P. Bradley, Martin Ryerson, Peter Bentley, David A. Hayes, John B. Harrison, Peter Vredenburg. Jos. C. Potts, F. T. Frelinghuysen, James Wilson, John Van Dyke, Robert D. Spencer, Lewis C. Grover, Jas. A. Simpson, J. F. Hageman, Wm. P. Sherman, Isaac W. Lanning, John Hopper, Mercer Beasley, Caleb S. Green, Ed. T. Hillyer, Cortlandt Parker, Rd. R. Paulinson, Isaac W. Scudder, John C. Ten Eyck, Jacob Vanarsdale, John S. Hager, Charles E. Elmer, Sam'l G. Wheeler, Jr., James W. Wall, Thomas H. Dudley, Daniel Haines, Robert Vanarsdale, Sam'l R. Hamilton, William D. Cooper, Samuel C. Allen, John H. Wakefield, John P. Stockton, James B. Dayton, Thomas W. Mulford, Daniel Barkalow and Absalom B. Woodruff.

The older members of the bar will appreciate the great array of legal talent comprised in this list, while they will be saddened by the knowledge that only three of the eighty-seven remain—Hon. Cortlandt Parker, John Whitehead, Esq., and Hon. John P. Stockton.

This allusion to donors of the past reminds us that one of the younger lawyers of the day (Francis B. Lee, Esq.) is entitled to particular credit, for the presentation, during the last year, of 25 fine old English folio Reports, which filled several blanks upon our shelves. They will be found formally specified in our Appendix. In a note accompanying the presentation, Mr. Lee wonders why many old lawyers do not place some of their valuable surplus works in the Library, for preservation and public benefit. It would be gratifying if the suggestion proved an incentive to produce the desired result.

Among other donations to the Library that deserve especial notice may be mentioned "Memoirs of Lieutenant-Colonel George Arrowsmith," of Monmouth county, by John S. Applegate, the author; a highly illustrated report upon the "New Park System," by the Essex Park Commission; the illustrated "Year Book" of Drew Theological Seminary, by Rev. S. G. Ayres, Librarian; "Statistics of the Cape of Good Hope for 1897," by some unknown donor; the illustrated "Semi-Centennial of Girard College, 1898," by G. P. Rupp, Librarian; an interesting "History of Tulane University, at New Orleans" (the grand institution established by the late Paul Tulane, of Princeton, N. J.), by Colonel W. P. Johnston, President; an important pamphlet upon "Albany's Place in United States History," by Berthold Frenow, the author; an illustrated "Report on Public Roads," 1897, by Colonel H. I. Budd; "The Hawaiian Handbook of Information, 1898," by T. J. Thrum; "The New Princeton Library," illustrated, by Professor E. C. Richardson, Librarian, and "Original Documents Relative to Governor Wm. Burnett, 1720-29," by Wm. Nelson, Esq.

Among our Miscellaneous purchases we desire to call attention to "The Library of the World's Best Literature" (45 vols.); the "Lineage Book of the Daughters of the American Revolution" (7 vols.); "Princeton's Sesqui-Centennial" (ill.); "In the Forbidden Land" (Thibet), by Landor (2 vols.); Sloan's "Life of Napoleon" (4 vols.); General Stryker's "Battles of Trenton and Princeton;" Pearson's "Photo-History of the Spanish-American War;" Ridpath's "Life of Gladstone;" Studer's "Chapters of American Natural History;" Millet's "Japan, Illustrated by Japanese;" "Trial of King Charles 1st of England" (ill. folio, 1684); Rose's "Modern Machine Shop Practice;" Professor Apgar's "Birds of the United States;" "Records of New Amsterdam" (7 vols.); George's "Science of Political Economy;" Wilcox's "Study of City Government;" "Curiosities of Popular Customs;" "Southern Statesmen of the Old Regime," and "Epochs in Church History."

The attendance of the pupils of the State and city schools has averaged 155 per week, with the use of 200 books weekly, during the nine months of the school year. This attendance, although reduced in number from that of last year, by reason of the weeding out of frivolous pleasure-seekers, has been most gratifying, in the evident interest and improvement manifested by the pupils, and the lack of destruction of stationery and injury of books. Last year I was sorely tempted to enforce the old rule, of closing the doors to all minors, on account of the vicious depredations of a few undiscoverable miscreants, but the vigilance and energy of my efficient Assistant in the Miscellaneous Department (Mr. Rogers) have apparently remedied the evil and prevented a general exclusion. The difficulty seems to have been attributable to some "fresh" pupils from the rural districts who wished to be considered "smart."

The matter of "traveling libraries" is constantly brought to our attention by letters from various parts of the State inquiring as to their status and possibility, to which I have invariably replied by a statement of facts; that a bill for their establishment was passed by the last Legislature, but became inoperative by reason of a want of appropriation. Undoubtedly the project will be revived at the present session and probably receive a successful inauguration. We fear, however, that its enthusiastic advocates expect too much aid from the State, their notions being evidently based on the action of New York, which last year expended $79,794.64 upon the State Library, by which it was enabled to furnish books to the traveling libraries at a small expense for packing and carting. In fact, Mr. Melvin Dewey, in his report of 1897 as Director of the State Library, congratulates himself that the New York Library law grants "State aid to libraries and to the traveling library system more complete and far-reaching than any other that has been known," and specifies that during the year there was paid by the State to various town libraries $24,254.51. When it is remembered that the State Library of New Jersey has merely the annual sum of $3,000 appropriated for the "purchase and care of books," it will be seen at once that the New York system could not readily be adopted in this State. However, it may be well to assist the "traveling library" enthusiasts in their scheme to supply reading to neglected neighborhoods, but it is a matter entirely for the consideration of the Legislature, with the distinct understanding that the books needed for the project cannot be supplied by the State Library under existing circumstances.

Our thanks are due to the last Legislature for a much-needed appropriation of $500 as a contingent fund, as heretofore all our expressage, postage, stationery, &c., were paid out of our book fund, leaving us only about $2,500 to apply to the "purchase and care of books." We are also thankful that the pay of our Miscellaneous Assistant was increased from $50 to $75 a month, as by that reason we were enabled to retain him against an effort to secure his services at an advanced salary by a strong corporation. The only regret I have is that the pay of Janitor Tuesday was not increased to the same amount, as he is peculiarly prompt, faithful and energetic in his service.

Our thanks and those of the pupils of the State Schools and Business Colleges are again due to the editors of the State (93 in number, as will be seen in our Appendix) who have supplied our tables regularly with their publications, without expense.

The number of transient visitors, during the year, who voluntarily placed their names upon our register, amounted to 2,852; being but 28 less than last year, which exceeded the previous year by 300. It will be understood that this does not include the members of the bar and other regular attendants at the Library—"whose name is legion."

During the year there were 148 books and 18 newspaper files bound, and 523 books repaired. Large numbers of valuable pamphlets have been placed in paper cases, awaiting the time when we will be able, by strict economy, or additional appropriation, to have them bound and properly shelved.

The accompanying Appendix presents an itemized statement of the additions to the Library by exchanges, donations and purchase, since my last report.

Respectfully submitted,

MORRIS R. HAMILTON,
State Librarian.
